One of the most advanced forms of qigong. Awakening Light Gong is powerful in that light is the carrier of qi so it is beyond a structured form. The sitting meditation has both a mantra and mudra to enhance the practitioner's openness to the spiritual light of the Universe. In turn, the light manifests into the healing qi coming from the ever abundant source. The standing routine is said to be formless, with music designed to lead practitioners into their unique spontaneous movements which move qi through the acupoints and meridians.

Grandmaster Liang, Guang Hua was inspired to create Awakening Light Gong from his lifelong studies in Buddhism, Zen Meditation, Daoism, and travel in India. Awakening Light Gong is especially unique in that the accompanying practice music promotes opening of the Central Channel leading to movements which then become the form.

An important qigong form to aid in the awakening of humans on this planet, collectively its practitioners will benefit in level of consciousness. This workshop is open* to those new to qigong, and to those who have learned another qigong form (after 6-12 mos. in that form especially if recovering from a serious illness).
